

Pulley

When you raise or lower a flag on a flagpole or open and close window blinds, you are using a simple machine known as a pulley. A pulley is a grooved wheel with a rope (or a chain, or even a steel cable) wrapped around it. You use a pulley by pulling on the rope. As a result, you can change the amount and direction of your input force.