

On the same website, visit the tool shed. Choose one compound machine to draw. Next, circle and label the simple machines that help to make the compound machine work.

On the second website, click on "Find the simple machine." Circle and label the simple machines that make up the lawnmower. Hint: there are 6. The lawnmower is located on the next page.